

10 Best American White Wines to Try in 2022

2022 is shaping up to be a great year for American white wine, some of the best producers in the country are releasing new vintages of their best white wines that all are available at online wine stores, and we can't wait open these white wine bottles.

The US is the third-largest producer of wine in the world, having more than a billion gallons of wine sold every year. You probably associate wine production with California because around 89 percent of US wine production takes place there. However, wine production can be found all over the United States, ranging from Washington to New York and everywhere in between.

From a crisp, refreshing Sauvignon Blanc or a rich, creamy Chardonnay, there's sure to be a wine on this list that will please your palate. So, without further ado, here are the 10 best American white wines to try in 2022 that all are available at any online wine delivery unit.

Montagne Russe La Cruz Vineyard Chardonnay

This wine originates from a very exceptional estate vineyard and has rich aromas of pineapple, lemon, and other tropical fruits, as well as a buttery flavor. It was aged in fresh French oak for a while, yet the toasty aromas were skillfully balanced.

Bella Grace Vineyards Amador County Sauvignon Blanc

This is unquestionably a high-quality wine. Its bright acidity will complement many seafood recipes. Its palates exhibit scents of tropical fruits, with a hint of crisp green apple, and it delightfully surprises with a flawless balance of all major components of wine, such as alcohol level, body, and fragrances.

Dane Cellars Buddha's Dharma Vineyard Chenin Blanc

By fermenting and maturing in neutral French oak, this wine obtained a tremendous deal of depth. It has an excellent minerality due to the presence of gravelly volcanic soils in the region. It has flavors of apple, caramel, and saltiness near the end of the tongue, as well as high acidity.

Trione River Road Ranch Sauvignon Blanc

This wine was produced using a traditional method of hand-harvesting the grapes and long contact between juice, skins, and seeds to create a rich depth of flavor. The palate is refreshing and smooth with hints of an exotic floral bouquet and just a hint of sweet lemon meringue.

Ferrari-Carano Sonoma County Chardonnay

With the Sur-lie method of fermentation, this medium-bodied wine highlighted biscuit scents which added richness to the flavor of the fruit, peach, pear, and orange. These flavors were nicely complemented by the vivid, rich notes of baked apple and nut, and helped enhance flavors without masking them.

Hanna Russian River Valley Sauvignon Blanc

This wine was harvested at night and matured on the lees for three to four weeks before bottling. It has scents of mango, lime, green apple, and melon, as well as a long aftertaste.

Balletto Vineyards Pinot Gris Russian River Valley

This wine is made from estate-grown grapes and boasts a refreshing, almost lemony flavor profile. There's a richness here too with extra touches of pineapple, pears, and strawberries.

Portalupi Mahoney Vineyard Vermentino

Although the grape Vermentino was popular in Italy, California Viognier went on to win over the hearts of wine lovers from around the world with its great taste. Hints of minerals and apples, peaches, and lime zest come together seamlessly for a truly exceptional glass of wine!

Leto Cellars Sauvignon Blanc

This comes from an experienced winemaker. This wine produces a bouquet of pleasing and inspiring aromas, including lychee, passion fruit, and lime. The fruity wine is bright with a lush texture and long finish.

Mengler Family Wines Stuhlmuller Vineyards Unoaked Chardonnay

This unoaked chardonnay is a light and refreshing wine. It has a clear complexion, beautiful white grape clusters, golden yellow color, tropical aromas, apple, and pear tastes, as well as a brisk acidity to complement its mildly sweet flavor profile.

Cobb Cole Ranch Vineyard Riesling

This unique Riesling is produced in the Cole Ranch AVA, the smallest appellation in the United States. It boasts strong apple and mango notes with high acidity. This excellent chilled summery wine is suitable for almost every situation that may arise in your daily life!

If you are looking for a refreshing wine to be able to enjoy on a warm day, this is the perfect choice that you can easily find if you want to buy wine online. We also have a blog that goes into more detail about wine history if you're interested: The Best White Wines of the Previous Year. Thank you for reading, and we hope that you have a fantastic day!

Source

by-

https://newyorkcity.bubblelife.com/community/bottle_barn/library/3511536822/key/355237482/10_Best_American_White_Wines_to_Try_in_2022